... Also requests the Executive Director to establish, within existing resources and building on work already undertaken without duplication of effort, a time-limited task group comprising the International Resource Panel and the One Planet Network:

• to provide insights on the management of natural resources and raw materials in relation to the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and explore the potential offered by the different pathways towards sustainable consumptions and production, as well as;

• to identify, taking into account national circumstance, technical tools, best practices, policy options sustainable technologies and innovative business models and finance flows in this regard.

• Requests further that the task group completes its work in time to present results to the United Nations Environment Assembly at its 5th session.
Also requests the Executive Director to establish, within existing resources and building on work already undertaken without duplication of effort, a time-limited task group comprising the International Resource Panel and the One Planet Network:

- to provide insights on the management of natural resources and raw materials in relation to the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and explore the potential offered by the different pathways towards sustainable consumptions and production, as well as;

- to identify, taking into account national circumstance, technical tools, best practices, policy options sustainable technologies and innovative business models and finance flows in this regard.

- Requests further that the task group completes its work in time to present results to the United Nations Environment Assembly at its 5th session.
Also requests the Executive Director to establish, within existing resources and building on work already undertaken without duplication of effort, a time-limited task group comprising the International Resource Panel and the One Planet Network:

- to provide insights on the management of natural resources and raw materials in relation to the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and explore the potential offered by the different pathways towards sustainable consumptions and production, as well as;
- to identify, taking into account national circumstance, technical tools, best practices, policy options sustainable technologies and innovative business models and finance flows in this regard;
- Requests further that the task group completes its work in time to present results to the United Nations Environment Assembly at its 5th session.
... Also requests the Executive Director to establish, within existing resources and building on work already undertaken without duplication of effort, a time-limited task group comprising the International Resource Panel and the One Planet Network:

- to provide insights on the management of natural resources and raw materials in relation to the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and explore the potential offered by the different pathways towards sustainable consumptions and production, as well as;

- to identify, taking into account national circumstance, technical tools, best practices, policy options, sustainable technologies and innovative business models and finance flows in this regard.

- Requests further that the task group completes its work in time to present results to the United Nations Environment Assembly at its 5th session.
... Also requests the Executive Director to establish, within existing resources and building on work already undertaken without duplication of effort, a time-limited task group comprising the International Resource Panel and the One Planet Network:

• to provide insights on the management of natural resources and raw materials in relation to the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and explore the potential offered by the different pathways towards sustainable consumptions and production, as well as;

• to identify, taking into account national circumstance, technical tools, best practices, policy options sustainable technologies and innovative business models and finance flows in this regard.

• Requests further that the task group completes its work in time to present results to the United Nations Environment Assembly at its 5th session.
... Also requests the Executive Director to establish, within existing resources and building on work already undertaken without duplication of effort, a time-limited task group comprising the International Resource Panel and the One Planet Network:

• to provide insights on the management of natural resources and raw materials in relation to the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and explore the potential offered by the different pathways towards sustainable consumptions and production, as well as;

• to identify, taking into account national circumstance, technical tools, best practices, policy options, sustainable technologies and innovative business models and finance flows in this regard.

• Requests further that the task group completes its work in time to present results to the United Nations Environment Assembly at its 5th session.